MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Office of Near Eastern and South Asian Analysis

FROM: Graham E. Fuller
Vice Chairman, National Intelligence Council

[redacted]
Assistant National Intelligence Officer for NESA

25X1

SUBJECT: Prognosis for Egypt

1. In forwarding a copy of this paper on Egypt to you, we wanted to make two points concerning [redacted]

2. First, we are impressed with how far in front of events (and the Community) they have been on Egypt. The first draft made it clear that they saw problems looming sooner rather than later and even specifically cited the security police as being of questionable reliability. Second, their cooperation and attitude has been outstanding in reacting to changing requests from the requestor of the paper.

3. Together, I think we have produced a timely assessment which will be carefully read around town. We are also producing an interagency paper on Egypt and will continue to rely heavily on [redacted]
